

Federal Property Management Regulations

§ 101-47.403

replacements in structures, utilities, installations, and land betterments, may be considered in those cases where disposal cannot otherwise be made, but no commitment therefor shall be entered into without prior approval of GSA.

§ 101-47.401-6 Interim use and occupancy.

When a revocable agreement to place excess real property or surplus real property in productive use has been made, the agency executing the agreement shall be responsible for the servicing thereof.

§ 101-47.402 Protection and maintenance.

§ 101-47.402-1 Responsibility.

The holding agency shall retain custody and accountability for excess and surplus real property including related personal property and shall perform the protection and maintenance of such property pending its transfer to another Federal agency or its disposal. Guidelines for protection and maintenance of excess and surplus real property are in § 101-47.4913. The holding agency shall be responsible for complying with the requirements of the National Oil and Hazardous Substances Pollution Contingency Plan and initiating or cooperating with others in the actions prescribed for the prevention, containment, or remedy of hazardous conditions.

§ 101-47.402-2 Expense of protection and maintenance.

(a) The holding agency shall be responsible for the expense of protection and maintenance of such property pending transfer or disposal for not more than 12 months, plus the period to the first day of the succeeding quarter of the fiscal year after the date that the property is available for immediate disposition. If the holding agency requests deferral of the disposal, continues to occupy the property beyond the excess date to the detriment of orderly disposal, or otherwise takes actions which result in a delay in the disposition, the period for which that agency is responsible for such expenses shall be extended by the period of delay. (See § 101-47.202-9.)

(b) In the event the property is not transferred to a Federal agency or disposed of during the period mentioned in paragraph (a) of this section, the expense of protection and maintenance of such property from and after the expiration date of said period shall be either paid or reimbursed to the holding agency, subject to the limitations herein, which payment or reimbursement shall be in the discretion of the disposal agency. The maximum amount of protection and maintenance to be paid or reimbursed by the disposal agency will be specified in a written agreement between the holding agency and the disposal agency, but such payment or reimbursement is subject to the appropriations by Congress to the disposal agency of funds sufficient to make such payment or reimbursement. In accordance with the written agreement, the disposal agency and the holding agency will sign an obligational document only if and when Congress actually appropriates to the disposal agency, pursuant to its request, funds sufficient to pay or reimburse the holding agency for protection and maintenance expenses, as agreed. In the absence of a written agreement, the holding agency shall be responsible for all expenses of protection and maintenance, without any right of contribution or reimbursement from the disposal agency.

§ 101-47.403 Assistance in disposition.

The holding agency is expected to cooperate with the disposal agency in showing the property to prospective transferees or purchasers. Unless extraordinary expenses are incurred in showing the property, the holding agency shall absorb the entire cost of such actions. (See § 101-47.304-5.)
